What if yellowfang never became a medicine cat?

I look at sagewhisker and think if I become a medicine cat I can't be with raggedpelt so the choice is obvious right? "No sagewhisker I am a warrior not a medicine cat I'm sorry" I turn to walk away when she says "then enjoy being a warrior" I leave the medicine den.

At the training hollow

"Hey raggedpelt I have some news" He turns and walks over "yes what is it?" I take a deep breath "I am staying as a warrior" he smiles and says "ok then let's get training"

3 moons later

My belly weights with my unborn kits reggedpelt runs over "do you want anything?" I snort with laughter "no and you can stop worrying I'm fine" he sighs with relief "good"
He turns to go but looks back "does that mean we can go hunting together?" I look and laugh "no!" He just turns walks away.

2 moons later

I feel pain I've never felt before I screech "ok yellow fang the first one out..." I barely hear the rest as another jolt of pain pulses through me after what felt like moon my kits were laying by me and suckling I smile tired.

2 sunrises had past since I gave birth to my kits me and raggedpelt decided on names the dark brown Tom was going to be named branchkit the grey one was Hopekit and little one was Wishkit I licked each of their heads in turns purring reggedstar comes in and says "I am going to call a meeting for russetpaw and boulders warrior ceremony I look at the kits and decide it would be better to stay in the nursery "no thanks I better stay to make sure they are safe" he nods and walks out.

5 moons later

I hear a squeal from out of the nursery I slowly rise and walk out the site I see terrified me there was blood everywhere I look at Wishkit who lay still and I look around branchkit is limping and Hopekit looks terrified "m-mom they were climbing the t-tree when branchkit slipped so W-Wishkit tried to reach him when she f-fell!" I am stunned by the shock I go to get sagewhisker but she's already here raggedpelt licks me in an attempt to comfort me but I just stare numbly.

We had sat vigle all night Wishkit had died from the fall I was grieving for my lost kit. I gasp up to the sky and think starclan has a way to punish every cat for their mistakes lick branchkit on the head "it's ok it's gonna best ok I promise" but did I just make a promise I can't keep I gaze into the distance tears sliding down my face. Please starclan keep my other kits safe please.

Ok here's what would not have happened if she chose to be a warrior
-she would never have lost 2 of her kits
-she never would have met firestar/paw/heart
-raggedstar would not have died so soon
-shadowclan would not have chased out windclan
-firepaw would still be paw not heart for longer because the battle wouldn't have happened with shadowclan
-without windclan being chased out there probably would be more battles between thunderclan and windclan

And I don't know if this would have happened in actual but just a Fanfic and headcanons!

Also thanks to someone in my comments! I edited this to put Yellowfangs canon kit names in! Originally they were Redkit and Stormkit.

What longtail had won against rusty

The taunts from the tabby get worse I look around and see him standing there I spring through the air landing on him he was not prepared for the attack so I had the advantage. I ripped my claws into one of his ears he screeches suddenly he has me pinned and pulled my collar back I can't breath the struggle gets worse until bluestar stops it "this kitty pet has lost the battle for his honour so he is banished from thunderclan" I look at bluestar "please no just give me one last chance please!" She says "chase him out longtail" he yowls in glee and he lunges at me I run as fast as possible I see a thunderpath I run toward it and bolt across longtail stops before it and yowls "and stay out kittypet" I keep moving suddenly a warrior lands on me pinning me to the ground I whimper "please don't kill me" he snorts "I won't stranger you seem a little lost kittypet" I now know these cats hate my kind "no I'm not a kittypet I'm a loner" he laughs no your not I can tell you have no muscle and your plump your a kittypet" I growl and lunge for his throat tearing my teeth into it he gurgles and falls sideways twitching.

Ok here are the things that would have gone wrong
-tiger claw would have taken over all the clans
-yelowfang would have died
-windclan would never come home
-the three would never exist
-brambleclaw would be evil
-sandstorm would be mates with dustpelt
-really the clans would end because the great journey never happened
-firestar never exists he became a rouge most likely joined scrouge
-cloudtail never existed
Brightpaw would have probably died
-bluestar never went mad because tigerclaw killed her
-yah everything would go wrong

Anouncment

Ok I am not going to write an entire story for each I'm just going to tell what's dif about each

What if bluestar kept her kits?

-thistleclaw would become thistlestar and the clan would be destroyed by his ambition
-all of her kits would live to fight some battles before the clan gets destroyed
-snowfur would still be dead
-firestar never existed
-the clans would be at constant war

What if tigerclaw was a good guy?

-thistleclaw would also be a good guy
-redtail would take over the clan
-tigerclaw would be nicer to ravenpaw
-ravenpaw would never leave the clan and would get his warrior name
-bluestar would never go mad
-swiftpaw would never die
-the dark forest would not go to warrior
-spottedleaf would not have been killed by mapleshade

what if bluestar lived?

1. She probably would be killed in the big battle
2. Fireheart would be leader either way
3. Tigerstar would probably be pissed

That's all I can think of what if rusty said no

Ok I know I have not been here for a while but here is an update

1: tigerclaw would have killed bluestar
2: the clans would have most likely been taken over by shadowclan
3: windclan would have died off
4: greystripe would have a different name
5: tigerclaw killed ravenpaw
6: it would be one short series

That's all

what if firestar wasn't the fire

Ok I'm gonna be nice and give you a story

Sandstorm wandered the forest looking for nothing just relaxing she heard a rustle "who's there" I don't recognise the scent none of the other clan smell like this "I'm not an enemy I promise in looking for thunderclan and firestar!"

To the camp!!

"Hello my name is blaze and I keep having these dreams telling me to find thunderclan and firestar!" He looks bright orange just like firestar he gets pulled into the great leaders can awhile later firestar comes out with a look of defeat on his face " I am very sorry to tell you all this but I am now certain that I am not the chosen one I am just an ordinary warrior just like you all blazers the true warrior"

Ok I will admit this is short and rushed I am just to lazy to Finnish this fireheart fell in love with silverstream

This was not my idea thank you to @ evilfanfictionwriter thanks for the idea

I'm giving you a chapter to distract me from my life at this point

- The kits probably would have stayed in thunderclan
- greystripe would BE very jealous
- The three wouldn't exist well maybe
- Sandstorm would fall for dustpelt
- Firestar maybe never existed because bluestar would appoint a new deputy
- Fireheart would maybe leave thunderclan to be with his kits
- They probably would lose to bloodclan
- Fireheart would have died because he wasn't a leader
- Riverclan would have left and not returned
- The clans would be done

That's all and remember this is just some guesses

sorry

I'm so sorry for not updating in a while I've been so busy and I can't think straight right now my life is a complete disaster it's also that I have no ideas please can I have some?

thank you!

Ok I have to thank everyone who has read this because I did not expect this many reads!! Like 136 reads?!?! That makes me so happy!

Thank at an the next one will be out soon!

what if redtail had survived

1. I don't think he would have agreed to let rusty stay leading to the end of the clans

2. Tigerclaw probably would have gotten in plenty of trouble and removed from thunderclan

3. Ravenpaw would have gotten his warrior name which is actually ravenwing

4. Greystipe would never have fallen in love with silverstream (maybe?)

5. Since rusty wasn't there sandpaw would have been with dustpaw (maybe?)

These are all just guessed but it is Canon that ravenpaws name would be been ravenwing but also I have to thank you for 166 reads
